

All our Volunteer vacancies for the 2019 season are filled, if you are interested for future years please contact us. In return for the chance to live on the island where Gavin Maxwell spent his last 15 months and where Teko is buried. Volunteers will help run the Bright Water Centre in Kyleakin as well as giving guided tours of the island and helping with island maintenance.

We would like applicants to commit for at least one month, longer if possible. If you or anybody you know would be interested then please send a CV to: [\[REDACTED\]](#)